

Conference Timetable

Date	Time	Location	Event
Tuesday 6th	4.30pm	Piccadilly Station Starbucks Coffee Shop AND Broomhurst Hall, Didsbury	A member of the Organising Committee will be available to direct you to the wine reception (optional).
	5 – 7pm	Room 3.25 Maths Tower Oxford Road	Wine Reception
	5.30pm	Piccadilly Station Starbucks Coffee Shop	A member of the Organising Committee will be available to direct you to the wine reception (optional).

Wednesday 7th	8.00am	Birley Building Refectory, Didsbury	Breakfast
	8.20– 8.30am	Broomhurst Hall	A member of the Organising Committee will be available to direct you to the Maths Tower.
	9.15 – 12.30pm	Room 2.17 Maths Tower Oxford Road	Registration and Presentation Session One.
	12.30 – 1.30pm	Various	Lunch
	1.30 – 5.00pm	Room 2.17 Maths Tower University of Manchester	Presentation Session Two
	5.00 – 7.30pm	Various	Join us for drinks prior to the Conference Dinner (optional).
	7.30pm onwards	Cornerhouse Bar Oxford Road	Conference Dinner

Thursday 8th	8.00am	Birley Building Refectory,	Breakfast
	9.00am – 12.40pm	Room 2.17 Maths Tower Oxford Road	Presentation Session Three
	12.40 – 1.25pm	Various	Lunch
	1.25 – 5.10pm	Room 2.17 Maths Tower Oxford Road	Presentation Session Four
	5.10pm -	Various	Dinner – no formal arrangements – please ask the Organising Committee if you require advice.

Talk Timetable – Wednesday 7th

Time	Session	Talk title & Speaker
9.15-9.30am	Registration
9.30-9.45am	Welcome Talk I
9.45-10.45am	Science and Biography I	“John Tyndall: Aristocrat of Science”, Peter Skelton, Wellcome Centre for History of Medicine, UCL “The Eccentric Reputation of William Martin, Natural Philosopher and Poet, 1772-1851”, Vicky Carroll, University of Cambridge “Setting a “Maximum Program” for the French Atomic Agency: How Individuals Shaped Technoscientific System-Building”, Matthew Adamson, Indiana University, United States
10.45-10.55am	Short Break
10.55-11.35am	Science and Biography II	“Appreciated abroad, depreciated at home. The case of Ellen Gleditsch: 1879-1968”, Annette Lykknes, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway “Creating Biography: The Father, the Son and the Stars”, Simon Olling Rebsdorf, University of Aarhus, Denmark
11.35-11.50am	Coffee
11.50am-12.30pm	History of Physics and Philosophy of Science	“Shall I compare thee to a...pressure wave? Analogy in Physics: Past and Present”, Ciara Muldoon, University of Bath “Ideas of Flows, and Flows of People and Books”, Anna Carlsson, University of Leeds “Ganot’s Textbooks of Physics: A Comparative”, Josep Simon, University of Oxford and Universitat de València, Spain “Buffon and Eighteenth-century Mathematics”, Lynnette Regouby, University of Cambridge
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch

1.30-2.30	Display, Spectacle and Showbusiness	“Evolution on Display: Popularising Darwin and natural history at the Dublin Natural History Museum”, Juliana Adelman, National University of Ireland “The Women’s League of Health and Beauty and the Spectacle of Mass Physical Display”, Helga Powell, Wellcome Centre for the History of Medicine, UCL “Living Curiosities: Ethnological show business and the emergence of ethnology, 1810-54”, Sadiah Qureshi, University of Cambridge
2.30-2.40pm	Short Break
2.40-3.40pm	Historicising Popular Science	“Popular Science in Denmark, 1850-1920”, Casper Anderson and Hans Henrik Hjerimitslev, University of Aarhus, Denmark “Does Prayer Work? Time and the study of periodicals in the history of science”, Jim Mussell, Birkbeck College, University of London “Danish Climate Change Research, 1957-1982”, Maiken Lolck, University of Aarhus, Denmark
3.40-3.55pm	Coffee
3.55-5.15pm	Nuclear Technology, Airships and Telegraphy	“Consulting Engineering and the Evolution of a Municipal Electricity Supply System: Alexander Kennedy in Edinburgh from 1880 to 1914”, Efstathios Arapostathis, University of Oxford “Isotope Schools: Training a scientific community within nuclear energy programmes 1945-1965”, Nestor Herran, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain “R100 and R101: Modernity above the firmament”, Chris Neilson, CHSTM, University of Manchester “The Electric Telegraphy: Great Highway of Thought or Signal?”, Neil Barton, UCL.
5.15pm	Close

Talk Timetable – Thursday 8th

Time	Session	Talk title & Speaker
9.00- 9.15am	Welcome II
9.15- 10.15am	Practitioners and Professional Identity	“Negotiating the transplantable heart”, Ayesha Nathoo, University of Cambridge “Defining Neurology”, Stephen Casper, Wellcome Centre for the History of Medicine, UCL “Doctors and Savants: Provincial Science and the Medical Practitioner, 1822-32”, Michael Brown, University of York
10.15- 10.25am	Short Break
10.25- 11.25am	Vapours, Spirits and Forces	“Vapours and the Imagination”, Koen Vermeir, University of Leuven, Belgium “Protean Bodies: Motion in Francis Bacon’s Natural Philosophy”, Sophie Weeks, University of Leeds “Experimental Theology: Victorian occultism as a natural science”, Anna Philpott, Birkbeck College, University of London
11.25- 11.40am	Coffee
11.40- 12.40pm	Anatomy, brains	“The co-emergence of theories of mankind and theories of the brain in early nineteenth century Britain”, Huw Price, University of Oxford “The Pre-history of Pathological Anatomy, the Morbid Anatomy of Harvey and Riolan”, Jon Bateson, University of Oxford “The Wrong Toy for the Job: Anatomical models between medicine, surgery and midwifery in Vienna around 1800”, Anna Maerker, Cornell University, United States
12.40- 1.25pm	Lunch

1.25-2.25pm	Food and drink	“The Brewery as Factory: Systems of beer management around 1800”, James Sumner, University of Leeds “Some exotic ingredients for home remedies”, Laurence Totelin, UCL, Wellcome Centre “Why is some coffee good and some bad? Quarrel and medical discourse in eighteenth-century Germany”, Christian Hochmuth, University of Dresden, Germany
2.25-2.35pm	Short Break
2.35-3.45pm	Science, Medicine and Africa	“On Fever in the Zambezi: An expedition as an experimental instrument, 1858-64”, Lawrence S. Dritsas, University of Edinburgh “Emergent Values of Modern Science and Technology in an African Context: Problems and Prospect”, Theophilus Otsel Ogbhemhe, Dept of Philosophy, University of Ibadan, Nigeria, and Lucky Edosa Oseghale, Department of Philosophy, Ambrose Ali University, Nigeria “The economic consequences of the plagues during the Mamluk period in Egypt, 1468-1517 AD”, Wan Kamal Mujani, University of Manchester
3.35-3.50pm	Coffee
3.50-4.30pm	Education	“Female Education in the Herschel Family”, Emily Winterburn, Imperial College, London “Science Education in 1903 – A Democratic School Reform and a New Science of Pedagogy”, Kristine Lynning, University of Aarhus, Denmark
4.30-5.10pm	Colonial Science	“Joji Sakurai and the Transfer of a British Model of Chemistry to Meiji Japan”, Yoshiyuki Kikuchi, Open University “Colonial labour, race, commerce and the social construction of opium consumption in British Malaya”, Liew Kai Khiun, Wellcome Centre for the History of Medicine, UCL
5.10	Close	There are no formal arrangements for dinner. Please see a member of the Organising Committee if you would like advice on where to go to eat.